

THE SINGING GIRL

There is a girl who loves to sing
She's an extraordinary loud thing!
She sings all night, she sings all day
She sings in June and she sings in May

She sings opera, she sings pop
She sings rock, she sings the lot
She sings every hour on the dot

Her voice is strong
Her voice is flat
Her voice scares the cat!

But to tell her to stop
Would be wrong
For how miserable it is without song
