An Adventure for All the Family with Lakeside Arts

Little Angel Theatre is one of the UK's leading makers of theatre for children. In more 'normal' times, the company's many fabulous productions (We're Going on a Bear Hunt, The Flying Bath, WOW! Said the Owl), all adaptations of popular children's books, have regularly graced Lakeside Arts' theatre.

Lakeside Arts is delighted to welcome Little Angel Theatre back to Nottingham, albeit virtually, with their latest family show Where the Bugaboo Lives on Saturday 27 and Sunday 28 March.

Based on the popular story by Sean Taylor, this made-for-Zoom, choose-your-own adventure style show follows Floyd and his sister Ruby as they creep into the dark, shadowy valley behind their house... a valley full of all kinds of spooky, creepy creatures and the scariest of them all, the Bugaboo!

Children aged 5 to 11 and their grown-ups are invited to join Floyd and Ruby on every step of their journey and help them decide which path they take and what monsters they meet.

"An utterly charming, incredibly elaborate, thoroughly transporting wonder of a show." Children's Theatre Reviews

"As a treat for young children it's hard to beat." The Stage

There will be two 45-minute performances each day at 11am and 2pm and tickets are just £10. More information about the show and other online activities is available at: lakesidearts.org.uk

This event has been made possible through a grant from the Cultural Recovery Fund from the Department of Digital, Culture, Media and Sport.

Notes to Editors:

Lakeside Arts is the University of Nottingham's public arts centre presenting a programme of visual arts and museum exhibitions, theatre, dance, children and families' productions, workshops as well as a learning programme for everyone. Its venues include the Djanogly Recital Hall which stages concerts by internationally renowned soloists and chamber ensembles; the Djanogly Gallery; the University Museum which has a permanent collection of archaeology covering a period of some 250,000 years; and the Djanogly Theatre presenting UK and international touring work as well as producing and co-producing new theatre and dance. lakesidearts.org.uk

Little Angel Theatre is a home for puppetry. Since its doors first opened in 1961 the theatre has been dedicated to creating and sharing inspiring stories. Puppetry is at the heart of this innovative theatre, from igniting the imaginations of the youngest minds to equipping tomorrow's puppeteers with the tools they need to succeed. As well as an internationally recognised theatre with productions touring throughout the UK and across the globe, Little Angel Theatre also has its roots in Islington, and works with its local, diverse community to break down barriers to arts engagement so all can benefit and enjoy this remarkable art form. littleangeltheatre.com
